

Fetish

Docu-Series for Television

Fetish is a weekly series with a sexy host (or group of hosts) from the world of sexual kink. Each week our host will travel to a fetish event somewhere in the world. These events are covert little fetish festivals, so to speak, celebrating a particular kink that overlaps the landscape of human sexuality. Our host will give us access to this previously unseen world, profile the characters involved, and participate in various fetish activities, taking us on a fun and salacious journey that offers insight into the fascinating landscape of human arousal.
